RURAL & YOUNG RURAL AMBASSADOR AWARD

The South Australian Rural and Young Rural Ambassador Award is conducted by SA Country Shows. After being nominated at your local Show, Ambassadors are invited to attend their local Association Dinner, where they are interviewed by a panel and nominated for the State Finals. All the information you need is online at www.sacountryshows.com

Ambassador Award Aims:

Foster Leadership Potential;

1. Reward Service;
2. Encourage and foster Youth Involvement;
3. Succession Planning for SA Country Shows.

The rewards are numerous, as the successful Ambassadors: develop and enhance leadership skills, practice public speaking, develop professional networks with influential decision makers, access all levels of Government and key representatives from primary industries, provide a strong voice for young people in regional and rural communities and develop communication skills, particularly in the media.

The program highlights talent, creativity and ingenuity of participants and by so doing, encourages entrants to be role models and more involved in their local communities. The program also enables entrants to gain greater proficiency and develop their stature and reputation in their chosen field.

Rural Ambassador Award: 20 to 30 years old
Young Rural Ambassador Award: 16 to 19 years old
Open to Young Men and Young Women, married or single

Draw or tell us a bit about yourself. What do you do for fun? Are you involved in farming? Have you ever entered something in the show? (Don't worry, if you run out of space, use the back of the page!)

We only have one rule – you need to live within the District Council area.

Judging Criteria (What you get judged on): Your manners (how polite you are), your personality (how you talk to us), how neatly you are dressed (clean and tidy), your general knowledge and your knowledge on agriculture.

What can you do after entering? You can learn more about the farming in your area, make a poster about the show, help on the day with the Clover Leaf Trail.

Any questions? Feel free to phone SHOW SECRETARY 0448 197 730
