ROYAL AGRICULTURAL & HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA INCORPORATED

History of the Mount Barker Show

142 Years, 1847-2014

The First Mount Barker Show was held in 1847 and was the forerunner to all other shows held in South Australia.

In 1862, the Mount Barker Show was held in Woodside. When a new Society was formed they held the first independent Show on Monday 7th March and it operated under the title of the Mount Barker Agricultural & Horticultural Society. The famous Show Pavilion of 1898 is now the present Show Office site.

In 1987 the Mount Barker Bicentennial Committee formed and organised a once-only event for 1988, reviving the highly successful 'Cream Bowl Festival' of the 1960s. The name 'Cream Bowl' stemmed from the district's prominence in the dairy industry. It was also decided to hold an indoor show in conjunction with the Bicentennial event, as the last Mount Barker Show was held in 1963.

The indoor show proved so popular that a steering committee took the lead to reform the Show Society, leading to the first revived Mount Barker Show being held in 1989. Many people with expertise were needed to convene different sections and a full show as we know it today with horses, cattle, sheep, goats, trade space, sideshows and indoor exhibits - held on Saturday 1st April, 1989.

The Mount Barker Show has continued successfully ever since and this year proudly brings the community together to focus on and help celebrate Mount Barker District's 175th anniversary.
